General Education

A 10 30 0 Associate in General Education

The Associate in General Education Degree is designed to serve individuals who would like to expand their knowledge, enrich their personal lives, and improve their understanding of the world today. The two-year program is for students who are interested in a basic exposure to the liberal arts and who would like to tailor their program to personal interests rather than to specific professional requirements designed for transfer. All courses must be numbered 110 or above.
