APPROVAL PROCESS, by signing below:

- The student and parent/guardian consent to allow the student to enroll in classes at COA for the current academic year and the college to provide student information to secondary school personnel to include forwarding interim or final grades to necessary high school personnel.
- Students enrolled in college classes should not have an expectation of privacy in classrooms or public spaces/labs.
- Permission is granted to COA to record classes for educational purposes, including verifying identity for course requirements.
- Parents should address concerns to the high school.
- The Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) prohibits access and release of a college student's educational records without the student's written consent. By signing this form, the student allows College of The Albemarle to release all financial records (including financial aid), for the current award year, academic records/transcripts, student conduct records and other educational records. For information about Leon's Law, see the Student Education Records Acknowledgment Form.
- Note: Students who do NOT successfully complete college classes with a C or higher at COA, may become ineligible to receive future financial aid.
