Under the Children of Fallen Heroes Scholarship Act, a Pell-eligible student whose parent or guardian died in the line of duty while performing as a public safety officer is eligible to receive a maximum Pell Grant for the award year.

Who Should Submit the Form?

A Pell-eligible student whose parent or guardian died in the line of duty while performing as a public safety officer.

To qualify for this scholarship, a student must be Pell-eligible and have a Pell-eligible EFC (up to 6206 for the 2022-2023 award year), and be less than 24 years of age or enrolled at an institution of higher education at the time of his or her parent's or guardian's death.

Definitions

For purposes of the Children of Fallen Heroes Scholarship, a public safety officer is:

- As defined in section 1204 of Title I of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (42 U.S.C 3796b); or
- A fire police officer, defined as an individual who is serving in accordance with State or local law as an officially recognized or designated member of a legally organized public safety agency and provides scene security or directs traffic in response to any fire drill, fire call, or other fire, rescue, or police emergency, or at a planned special event.

A "public safety officer" means:

- An individual serving a public agency in an official capacity, with or without compensation, as a law enforcement officer, as a firefighter, or as a chaplain;
- An employee of the Federal Emergency Management Agency who is performing official duties of the Agency in an area, if those official duties:
 - Are related to a major disaster or emergency that has been, or is later, declared to exist with respect to the area under the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 5121 et seq); and
 - Are determined by the Administrator of the Federal Emergency Management Agency to be hazardous duties;
- An employee of a State, local or tribal emergency management of civil defense agency who is performing official duties in cooperation with the Federal Emergency Management Agency in an area, if those official duties
 - Are related to a major disaster or emergency that has been, or is later, declared to exist with respect to the area under Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 5121 et seq.); and
 - Are determined by the head of the agency to be hazardous duties; or

- Are determined by the head of the agency to be hazardous duties; or
- A member of a rescue squad or ambulance crew who, as authorized or licensed by law and by the applicable agency or entity, is engaging in rescue activity or in the provision of emergency medical services.
