College of The Albemarle (College) acknowledges students have the right to a fair and balanced system for initiating general complaints or grievances relating to decisions made or actions taken by a College employee that involves misapplication of the college's policies, procedures, or regulations.

To affirm its commitment to promoting a fair and balanced system for student complaint and grievance resolution, the College publishes procedures to guarantee a prompt, reasonable, and impartial process for addressing informal complaints and written grievances. In addition, the College maintains a record of student complaints.
