Title: Student Right to Know Act

Related Policy and Procedures:

Division of Responsibility: Student Success and Enrollment Management

Pursuant to the Student Right to Know and Campus Security Act (the Act), College of The Albemarle (College) is required to publicly disclose relevant graduation and transfer rate information for its students. The Act is a consumer information report designed for public access to relevant graduation and transfer information to enable students to make informed decisions regarding their college choice. The College makes available to currently enrolled as well as prospective students the graduation and transfer rate for the most recent cohort of entering students based on a one-year reporting period.

The report is updated annually and is available in the Consumer Information report located on the College's website and distributed monthly via email.
