

Disbursement for Books and Supplies

Pell eligible students are able to charge their tuition and fees. If students are expected to have excess financial aid funds, their books and supplies can be ordered from the COA bookstore and charged, not sooner than 10 days before the first day of classes of the payment period.

Students enrolled in courses where tuition includes book charges are given the opportunity to “opt out” of the book purchase.

Learn about COA Bookstore charging at
<https://www.albemarle.edu/costs-paying-for-college/award-information/>