

2020-2021 Student Tax Filing Status Form

The marital status on your FAFSA does not match your income tax filing status on your 2018 federal tax return. You are required to resolve this conflicting information before College of The Albemarle can process your request for financial aid. After submitting this completed form, we will email your COA student email address to notify you of your next steps and to inform you if any additional information is required.
